

Pebble

The Pebel bench has a robust design combined with concrete, making it a simply outstanding product. Developed as urban furniture for high traffic public spaces, its concrete supports, in conjunction with a perforated steel sheet bench create an extremely durable product that remains visually appealing.

In the stainless steel version, the Pebel bench stands out as the anti-vandal bench par excellence and it is totally rust free.

In all variations, the Pebel line becomes the exemplary urban and quintessential park bench.
